

PROFESSIONAL SERVICES Deployment Services

Ellipsiz Communications have a wealth of experience delivering complex hardware and software products to business environments, on time and within budget. You can trust your project deployment to Ellipsiz Communications Project Managers, Consultants and Engineers and leave the hard work to us.

How will Ellipsiz Communications Deploy Your Project

Ellipsiz Communications follows a tried and tested structured Project methodology that incorporates:

- Establishment of the agreed project outcomes
- Checkpoints to ensure the business model is being adhered too during the project
- Workflows that adhere to a structured Technical methodology
- Use of standard Processes and Procedures
- Use of common Tools and Templates
- Post implementation reviews.

How can Ellipsiz Communications Professional Services Help your Project Deployment?

- By the provision of Project Managers with multi-industry experience
- By the provision of consultants with Project Management experience or understanding
- By the provision of a Project Manager who will be the single point of contact for the entire project, including third party management and risk mitigation.

Benefits of Ellipsiz Communications Project Deployment

- Letting Ellipsiz Communications manage your projects allows you to maximise the operational availability of your business.
- Achieve a predetermined level of success with minimal disruption to your business.
- Ellipsiz Communications can provide Professional management of complex implementations.
- A sole point of responsibility for problem resolution.

Change Management during Deployment

- Let our Entrepreneurial skills work for you to get things done even in hostile, indifferent and political settings.
- Ellipsiz Communications have the skills to successfully influence people, in spite of established organisational boundaries, who have their own interests to pursue.
- Ellipsiz Communications Business Analysts can create business cases for your projects to aid you with project justification and provide defined business outcomes.

Risk Management Planning during Deployment

Risk Management is not a one off exercise, rather it needs continuous effort throughout the project lifecycle. How can Ellipsiz Communications Project Managers help mitigate your project risks:

- Understanding of the Business implications.
- Managing project progress to ensure deviations from the plan or scope are dealt with effectively.
- Minimising of both technical and contractual risk to the project.
- Minimising loss of business revenue due to project related delays by contingency planning.
- The preparation of a Risk Plan, in conjunction with You, to maximise the availability of services in the event of a disruption to the Project Plan.

